"The Easter Season"

Thomas answered him (Jesus), "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name. (John 20: 28-31)

Even though the Easter displays are long gone in the stores we in the Church are still celebrating! We celebrate Easter for a full seven Sundays while we proclaim to the world. "Alleluia! Christ is Risen! Christ is Risen Indeed!"

The Gospel on the 2nd Sunday of Easter raised the question of "doubt". Thomas had refused to believe unless he had proof of Jesus' resurrection. Thomas gets that proof and proclaims "My Lord and my God!" But many of us "have not seen", and some of us "have come to believe." Where are you on that trust/doubt continuum?

Doubt is not unhealthy. We need to ask for evidence for things which lay a claim on us. If it is necessary to evaluate the validity of political or economic truth claims, don't we also wish to get it right on trusting God?

I trust that life wins out over death. The "resurrection" means Christ continues to be present with us and transform us. We confess in the Apostle's Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting." I believe that God never stops loving and supporting us, that grace is ultimately the most trustworthy force in the universe. As Christ is Risen, we too will rise. Yes, I've got many questions about exactly what that is like. Yet I know that "Christ is Risen" as I see Jesus' presence in brothers and sisters taking risks to love one another, even as Christ has loved us.

In God's grace,
Pastor Paul

THIRD SUNDAY of EASTER APRIL 30th

Today's gospel begins with two disciples walking to Emmaus, overcome with sadness, loss, and disappointment. They had hoped Jesus, who was crucified, would be the one to redeem Israel! Yet the risen Christ walks with them, and then opens their eyes in the breaking of the bread. Each Sunday our hearts burn within us as the scriptures are proclaimed and Christ appears to us as bread is broken and wine is poured. The story of Emmaus becomes the pattern of our worship each Lord's day. (from Sundays and Seasons)

THE GOSPEL SUNDAY IS JOHN 11: 1-45.

ADULT FORUM on April 30th, we will discuss the article on "Church in rural America", in the April Living Lutheran.

Please join us Sunday mornings at 8:45 a.m. There will be no Adult Forum/ Sunday School during the summer after May 21st.

The Road to Emmaus.

Dr. Latini is an ordained minister of Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church (USA), a denomination in full communion partnership with the ELCA. (LTSG News Release, 4/20/17)

Forthcoming among synod-planned Reformation anniversary events is an international conference May 30-June 1 co hosted with and at Catholic University of America along with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Pontifical Committee for Historical Sciences and the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany. ## PASTOR PAUL AND MARSHA HOUSING UPDATE

We have a contract on a house in Maryland, in the Towson area near Baltimore, and hope to close on the purchase on May 31. We are excited to have found a home and feel very blessed that it is less than 5 miles from each of our children (and grandchildren)! I'll take off some days during the first two weeks of June for moving our things and cleaning out our storage unit here in Fairfax. We have our rental house here in Fairfax through the end of June.

Now I'll need to find a place to stay here in Fairfax 3-5 nights a week beginning sometime in July. I'm thinking a small, basement apartment will fulfill my needs, though I could consider a room in a house with a fairly private bath if someone in the congregation has something like that available. Let me know if you have any leads or know any such situations that might work for me fairly close to church.

I'm open to conversation about all of this, and look forward to getting resettled. Thank you for your understanding in all of this.

In Christ, Pastor Paul
